

Dare To Dream

No mountain is too high to keep you from climbing it.

No obstacle is too awesome to keep you from overcoming it.

No goal is too great to keep you from reaching it.

No problem is too difficult to keep you from solving it.

No adversary is too powerful to keep you from conquering
it.

No burden is too heavy to keep you from bearing it.

And no aspiration is too noble to keep you from attaining
it...

...As long as you have a dream!
